

Parenting Matters Playgroup

Come and join our facilitated playgroup.

A fun, hands-on look at play and parenting. This facilitated playgroup provides parents with the opportunity to meet with other parents and guide their children's play in a supportive and welcoming environment.

The playgroup provides art and craft, music, stories and other activities. A facilitator is available to support parents if they have any questions relating to parenting issues.

Cost: A gold coin donation

When: Every Tuesday morning, 9:30 – 11:30 am including the school holidays

Where: Richardson Community House

Address: Prichard Crescent, Richardson

Inquiries: Parenting Matters: 61007160 E-mail: parentingmatters@commsatwork.org

For more information, please visit our website: www.commsatwork.org

Parenting Matters is managed by Communities@Work and is funded by the Office for Children, Youth and Family Support.